2021 REPORT TO THE COMMUNITY

OUR MISSION:

EL PASO
COMMUNITY
FOUNDATION

A Community Profit Organization™

- | To establish permanent charitable funds
- | To provide a vehicle for donors' varied interests
- | To promote local philanthropy
- | To provide leadership and resources to address local challenges and opportunities

ON THE COVER

The El Paso region's borderless blue sky inspired the cloud-shaped design of the El Paso children's museum and science center.

A MESSAGE TO THE COMMUNITY

What's the old adage? Hindsight is 2020.

When we look back on 2020, we see loss of life and suffering caused by the COVID-19 pandemic. The El Paso Community Foundation worked to address the community's economic and health needs – mindful that the best thing for our health was not always best for the economy, and vice versa.

The El Paso Community Foundation pioneered Get Shift Done for El Paso, which connected laid-off food service workers to essential jobs at nonprofits, such as the El Pasoans Fighting Hunger Food Bank. In 2020, almost half of the unemployment claims in Texas were from food service and hospitality workers, whom we gave a helping hand and the dignity of work. The Foundation worked with local government to provide the El Paso Community Debit Card to the people who needed it most, so they could buy groceries and prescriptions. The Foundation supplied more than a million pieces of PPE – face masks, mainly – to first responders, health workers, law enforcement, and nonprofits in El Paso and Ciudad Juárez.

Before the pandemic, we already had plenty to do – and we continue the work. The El Paso Community Foundation Plaza Classic Film Festival took the movies to the streets in 2020 with 11 nights of pop-up drive-ins around town, plus online features – and the show will go on. The Children's Museum and Science Center is quickly rising from the ground in downtown El Paso. Our partner, El Paso Matters, is providing fair and balanced journalism; Microsoft has partnered with the El Paso Community Foundation as well, to amplify that effort as we build the Puente News Collaborative. The Foundation is working with El Paso County and UTEP to address critically needed access to broadband internet. We are working with the State of Texas to resurrect the Wyler Aerial Tramway. We are partnered with the City of El Paso to refresh Murchison Rogers Park at Scenic Drive. "The Intersection of Possibilities," which provides media and content for economic development, is receiving national attention. These are just a few initiatives of the Foundation.

COVID-19 lingers, of course, but we are learning to lead more normal lives. I am glad 2020 is in our hindsight, and looking forward to a better future. Sincere thanks to all of our donors and partners.

COMMUNITY FOUNDATION NATIONAL STANDARDS BOARD

EL PASO
FOUNDATION

For Good. For El Paso. Forever.

A Community Profit Organization™

The El Paso Community Foundation is recognized by National Standards for operational excellence.

What does that mean? The National Standards are philanthropy's most rigorous, with some of the highest measuring sticks for accountability, transparency, and continuous self-improvement.

The El Paso Community Foundation is among more than 700 community foundations in the United States. We are a member of the Council on Foundations and are confirmed to be in compliance with the National Standards for U.S. Community Foundations.

Community foundations provide a simple, powerful, and highly personal approach to giving. As a public charity devoted to our community, we offer a variety of giving tools to help you achieve your charitable goals.

The National Standards Board guides the sound policies and practices that help community foundations achieve results and impact. It is our version of the Good Housekeeping seal and distinguishes us as a smart investment for philanthropists.

Intended as a blueprint for internal organizational development and as a tangible set of benchmarks for external assessment of performance, the 26 National Standards address five key areas of community foundation operations:

- | Mission, structure, and governance
- | Resource development
- | Stewardship and accountability
- | Grant-making
- | Donor relations, community leadership, and communications

In the words of Vikki Spruill, former President and CEO of the Council on Foundations, "Each of us knows where a grant has made a difference, a donation jump-started an initiative, or a contribution catalyzed a movement." This is where the El Paso Community Foundation's efforts to improve our region come to fruition.

EL PASO CHILDREN'S MUSEUM AND SCIENCE CENTER

Construction started in January 2021 on El Paso's newest wonder, the El Paso children's museum and science center. The El Paso Community Foundation is partnering with the City of El Paso and other stakeholders on the $70 million project, which is transforming a dusty lot on the corner of Santa Fe and Main streets into a world class, one-of-a-kind museum and science center for kids of all ages and sizes.

The awe-inspiring four-story structure, designed by the New York office of Norway's Snøhetta, was inspired by the boundless blue sky and borderless clouds that are part of the borderland's majestic appeal. The innovative design was unveiled last fall, shortly before the reveal of the museum's unique exhibitions, designed by Gyroscope, Inc. of California as a series of 10 themed zones that encourage interactive exploration of water, sound, wind and more. Nine of those zones will feature installations by El Paso-area artists.

Continuing the Community Foundation's desire to incorporate public input into the project, a three-month Name the Museum Challenge was launched in January. The public is taking suggestions for the museum's permanent name via its website, epcmuseum.org, and social media platforms. A major capital campaign kicked off with the announcement of a $5 million donation from the Woody and Gayle Hunt Family Foundation.

The children's museum and science center will be a game changer for our region. Nothing like it exists in the area's educational ecosystem – or skyline. Its mission: Launch imagination and spark discovery. With its big, borderless "blue sky" concept, the museum will provide hands-on interactive opportunities for children and their families to develop skills, such as creativity, collaboration, risk-taking and perseverance. Every exhibit will provide novel opportunities for learning that complement children's senses of wonder, discovery and exploration. It will help children to imagine and build a new future for themselves, their home, and their world.

The El Paso Community Foundation is leading the way on the conception, design, and fundraising for what promises to be a world-class museum from top to bottom, inside and out. Thanks to input from the community, teachers and educators, we plan to make El Paso's children's museum a community hub that is welcoming to every family in the border region.

LEADERSHIP PROJECTS

CORONAVIRUS PANDEMIC

Like a global tsunami, the coronavirus pandemic has rippled into every corner of the world, including our beloved Borderland. As of spring 2021, more than 134 million people around the world have been infected, nearly 3 million killed, including more than 560,000 in the United States and nearly 6,000 in the El Paso-Ciudad Juárez-Las Cruces, N.M. region.

School closures. Remote learning. Business shutdowns. Curbside pickup. Event cancellations. Virtual concerts. Masks. Social distancing. Hand washing. They're all signs of these challenging new times, and they've taken a dramatic toll on our families, friends and coworkers.

The El Paso Community Foundation has responded in numerous ways.

One of the most impactful is the ongoing

Get Shift Done for El Paso

initiative, launched in April 2020, which provides paid shift work to laid-off restaurant and hospitality workers to assist the overwhelmed staffs at the El Pasoans Fighting Hunger Food Bank and the Desert Spoon Food Hub. Donations large and small have funded the Get Shift Done effort, the second one to launch in the United States after its start in Dallas. It has paid out more than $1.1 million in wages to more than 720 workers who have put in more than 22,000 shifts and nearly 100,000 hours. The need is ongoing. You can donate at epcf.org/getshiftdone.

The first project of the new El Paso Community Foundation Debit Card was a fall 2020 partnership with Project Bravo that distributed prepaid cards worth up to $2,000 each to El Paso County residents adversely impacted by the pandemic. The cards helped pay for more groceries and prescriptions. More than $820,000 in city and county CARES Act funds were passed on to more than 400 households. The card will be used for other needs as they emerge.

The newest initiative is the Bright Hearts of El Paso Fund, the result of a partnership with El Paso Electric and members of the city's faith community, including Temple Mount Sinai, the Catholic Diocese of El Paso, the InterFaith Alliance of the Southwest, the Both Sides/No Sides zen community, and Cross of Grace Church. The fund will help El Paso Electric customers who are behind on their bills because of the pandemic and in danger of being disconnected. El Paso Electric will match donations dollar for dollar. To donate, go to epcf.org/brighthearts.

In March 2020, when the shutdowns began, then-22-year-old Vanessa Martinez wanted to find a way to feed health care workers – for free. She started Feeding the Frontline, El Paso (epcf.org/feedelpaso) to provide free meals, purchased from local businesses, to frontline health care and law enforcement workers. Now an affiliate of the El Paso Community Foundation, Feeding the Frontline has raised more than $100,000 and served nearly 11,000 free meals to doctors, nurses, techs and others in the medical field on the front line of the war against the coronavirus.

The Community Foundation continues to help medical personnel and first responders in other ways. The El Paso County Medical Society COVID-19 Masks and PPE Fund purchased more than 45,000 masks for local clinicians. The El Paso-Juárez Unidos vs. COVID-19 Fund provides PPE to hospitals in Juárez. The Community Foundation recently donated 100,000 masks to the El Paso County Sheriff's Department, with plans to distribute more. The Cardwell Foundation, an affiliate of the Community Foundation, gave $60,000 to Fort Bliss' USO to provide toiletries and other necessities for soldiers quarantined after deployments overseas. A $25,000 grant from the Community Foundation helped the YWCA Paso del Norte Region provide day care to the children of essential workers.

Some of our ongoing projects fell victim to the pandemic. Others continued, but in significantly altered forms. The 13th annual Plaza Classic Film Festival® moved from the Plaza Theatre, which was closed, to parking lots around town for a series of 11 pop-up drive-in movies, plus five days of digitally streamed films, drawing more than 6,000 movie fans. The Classroom Fund event for teachers went from an in-person pickup to a drive-through. Our 32nd annual Spirit of Giving™ holiday campaign combined physical and virtual gift tags, with the community donating more than 2,000 gifts to those served by nearly two dozen area nonprofits.

EL PASO MATTERS

El Paso Matters, a supporting organization of the El Paso Community Foundation, is a new, nonprofit founded in 2019 by award-winning journalist Robert Moore. The former El Paso Times editor created El Paso Matters (elpasomatters.org) to report on issues that area readers need to make informed decisions.

El Paso Matters wants to encourage governments and key institutions to operate in a transparent, efficient, and ethical manner. Its specialty is in-depth and investigative reporting.

Moore, whose work has appeared in the Washington Post and Texas Monthly, believes that El Paso and the El Paso del Norte region have needed a nonprofit, nonpartisan, member-supported digital news organization that dives into the complex issues shaping our region while serving as a catalyst for solutions-oriented conversations.

"We are the focal point of a national debate over the border that often distorts the reality of border life," Moore said.

EL PASO MATTERS

El Paso Matters has led the way on local coverage of the COVID-19 pandemic, education, immigration, and government.

The El Paso Community Foundation is assisting in the fundraising for El Paso Matters, which went live online in February 2020. Donations may be made at epcf.org/epmatters and elpasomatters.org.

El Paso-Juárez is one of five regions in North America chosen by Microsoft for a local journalism initiative, funded through the Community Foundation. The newly formed Puente News Collaborative is made up of eight local news outlets in El Paso and Juárez, including El Paso Matters, that share stories about issues relevant to our border area.

LEADERSHIP PROJECTS

EVERY LITTLE BLESSING/ PROJECT SEARCH

The Down Syndrome Coalition for El Paso, a supporting organization of the El Paso Community Foundation, opened Every Little Blessing, the only local pre-school for children with Down syndrome and other learning disabilities, in 2017.

As part of the Down Syndrome Coalition for El Paso's vision of expanding educational and workplace opportunities beyond high school, it teamed with the national nonprofit Project SEARCH, and The Hospitals of Providence to provide internships for students with special needs. Partners include the El Paso Independent School District, Socorro ISD, Fabens ISD, and San Elizario ISD.

It's part of the Down Syndrome

Coalition for El Paso's plan to give students a path to employability after they have finished their educations, to develop independent living skills, and to rewire how the business world thinks about employing people with disabilities.

DSCEP is in the process of opening the first El Paso location of Howdy's Homemade, a Dallas-based ice cream parlor chain that provide employment opportunities for those with special needs. The store is expected to open in 2021.

BORDERPLEX COMMUNITY CAPITAL, INC.

The El Paso Community Foundation has created Borderplex Community Capital, Inc., a community development development financial institution, or CDFI, which provides low or no-interest loans, financial assistance and more to underserved populations and communities. The CDFI Fund is administered by the United States Department of the Treasury.

Its first action was to provide a loan to the El Pasoans Fighting Hunger Food Bank for the purchase of two refrigerated trucks.

The trucks allow the food bank to keep perishable food items fresh as they are trucked from far away locations.

Currently, Borderplex Community Capital, Inc. is partnering with the County of El Paso on the FASTER (Financial Assistance for Safety, Technology and Economic Relief) program. It provides 2 million dollars' worth of no- or low-interest loans, between $35,000 and $125,000 each, to small businesses and nonprofits in the county that have been impacted negatively by the coronavirus pandemic and have implemented a health and safety policy pursuant to County Judge Ricardo Samaniego's orders. More information is available at epcf.org/faster.

THE BORDERLAND 100 CLUB

A new supporting organization of the El Paso Community Foundation, the Borderland 100 Club of El Paso was started by former El Paso police officer Amanda Walsmith to address the needs of area first responders of all kinds, including their families. Part of a nationwide non-profit organization begun in the 1950s, the club is based on a simple premise – if 100 people gave $100, a family of a first responder can receive $10,000 within 48 hours of a death in the line of duty.

In addition to financial assistance, the Borderland 100 Club is certified to provide confidential peer support to first responders, such as those who responded to the Walmart shooting on August 3, 2019.

Other assistance is provided to active first responders injured or facing catastrophic illness in the line of duty. It also has a safety enhancement program, and offers scholarships and retraining. The group hosts various fundraisers, and is working on a plan to create a Heroes Cemetery for fallen first responders.

The El Paso Community Foundation is helping the Borderland 100 Club raise money for its various projects. Donate to the club at epcf.org/borderland100.

EPCF COLLABORATIVES

To address issues facing animal, cultural and LGBTQ+ organizations in our region, the El Paso Community Foundation convenes like-minded groups for quarterly roundtable summits. A special project of the Community Foundation, these summits provide a forum for the exchange of ideas, opportunities to develop new partnerships, and the chance to brainstorm solutions to challenges faced within their respective communities.

The goal is to utilize the collective strength of the participating organizations to exact meaningful outcomes for the El Paso community.

The El Paso Animal Collaborative is made up of 22 large and small organizations, including Second Chance Wildlife, El Paso Animal Services, and the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

The collaborative spearheaded free vaccination clinics for canine parvovirus and distemper prevention, and Animal 915, a comprehensive list of contact numbers for various entities that assist with everything from reporting animal abuse to wild rabbits.

The collaborative is working on a pilot project to map disease and vaccination rates in the region. The El Paso Community Foundation established a fund to help pay for the effort. Go to epcf.org/eanimals to donate.

The El Paso Cultural Roundtable was formed to create better cooperation and partnerships between arts and cultural organizations, promote the arts, and improve visibility of their programs in the community.

Its membership includes two dozen of the city's major museums, the historic Magoffin Home, music, arts and other organizations.

Initiatives include an inter-collaborative events calendar and an Education Night to illustrate how cultural resources can be used in and out of the classroom, and through field trips to member institutions, such as the El Paso Zoo and museums.

The LGBTQ+ Roundtable includes the Border AIDS Partnership, ACLU of Texas and other groups dealing with youth, students, military veterans, and others.

It has several goals, including increasing education about and visibility in the community; fighting bigotry; promoting holistic health and wellness; providing leadership to and representation of marginalized LGBTQ+ youth; and making resources more available and accessible. The roundtable created an internal directory to improve communication and collaboration between its member organizations.

AUGUST 3, 2019

Some dates we try not to forget. Birthdays. Wedding anniversaries. There's one date those of us in the El Paso-Ciudad Juárez metroplex will never forget – August 3, 2019.

It was at 10:39 that morning when a racially motivated murderer from suburban Dallas opened fire on our brothers and sisters in and outside of the Cielo Vista Walmart. 23 died. 25 were seriously wounded. Hundreds more suffered minor injuries and major trauma. It was one of the worst mass shootings in American history.

The local and world communities came together that day, offering love, prayers, help and money. The El Paso Community Foundation was three days into its annual Plaza Classic Film Festival when the first reports came in.

In minutes, it created the first of three victims' funds, which have raised more than $8 million from donors here and around the world.

Community Foundation staff devoted countless hours to the effort, from interacting with victims' families on both sides of the border to providing assistance to first responders who came through on a grand scale that day.

The El Paso Community Foundation created One Fund El Paso to bring together other funders and counteract confusion. One Fund El Paso, a supporting organization of the El Paso Community Foundation, worked with the National Compassion Fund to get the donated money to the victims.

More than $11.5 million in non-taxable gifts was distributed among 363 people directly affected by the shooting.

The El Paso Community Foundation's efforts will continue for years to come. The El Paso Victims' Education Fund (epcf.org/epyouth) – bolstered by a $500,000 donation from singer Khalid's Great Khalid Foundation – will help with the educational needs of the victims' children and grandchildren.

The El Paso Long Term Care Fund (epcf.org/eplongterm) will provide financial support for those suffering from ongoing physical and mental injuries.

It was one of our city's darkest days, but it was also a day that a community – local and global – came together to prove that love trumps hate.

August 3, 2019 is a day we'll never forget.

HOW TO START A FUND

Anyone can contribute to any of the funds in the El Paso Community Foundation. The funds are listed in this annual report. You can start your own. It's easy.

Name Your Fund

Funds are usually named for people, places and things. Pick a name that makes sense to you.

Make Your Initial Gift

It can be a few dollars, a few hundred or a few thousand. Some people donate land, property, life insurance policies, art, or other valuable items. You and others can add to it as often as you like.

Choose The Type of Fund

There is a fund type for every need. They can support organizations, causes, areas of interest, or community needs in general. Everything from the arts to wildlife rescue can be helped.

TYPES OF FUNDS

General Charitable Purpose Funds

Donations to this type of fund may be used to address a wide variety of needs in the community. General charitable purpose funds played a role in projects such as the Plaza Theatre restoration, El Paso children's museum and science center, Roderick Artspace Lofts, Wyler Aerial Tramway, the Mission Trail, and The Classroom Fund.

Designated/Agency Funds

Allows the donor to support one or more specific organizations or causes.

Field of Interest Funds

The donor indicates an area of interest, such as animals or the arts, to which they want the funds directed.

Donor Advised Funds

The donor suggests specific uses of the fund and is included in grant-making.

Charitable Remainder Trust Funds

Irrevocable charitable trusts that provide income to the donor during their lifetime and support charitable work after.

Scholarship Funds

A scholarship fund is an impactful way to help students advance their educations while honoring your alma mater.

If you would like to start a fund or learn more about planned giving to support causes that you care about, contact:

LINDA WOLFE

GREAT KHALID FOUNDATION AND RIGHT HAND FOUNDATION VICTIMS' SCHOLARSHIP FUND

Spurred by the August 3, 2019 mass shooting in his hometown, R&B sensation Khalid routed his Free Spirit tour to El Paso's Don Haskins Center, where the hometown hero headlined a star-studded, sold-out benefit concert, A Night for Suncity, on September 1. Mother Linda Wolfe, executive director of the Great Khalid Foundation, researched options and chose the "O.G. (Original Gangsta)," as she put it, the El Paso Community Foundation, to make a $500,000 donation from concert proceeds. Their generous gift is going toward scholarships and other educational needs of children of the shooting victims

"We looked at everything the El Paso Community Foundation was doing, and its impact on the community. It felt like the Community Foundation was the most responsible, the safest choice. There are other efforts out there, but the proof is in the pudding."

– Linda Wolfe

The more than 500 funds now established in the El Paso Community Foundation represent a kaleidoscope of interests, hopes, and dreams. Distributions from these funds have made possible an array of grants that can be found on our website at epcf.org.

Income from these unrestricted funds, also known as general charitable purpose funds, is distributed in the form of grants following a careful review by the Board of Directors. These funds have the most flexibility of all as they can more easily meet the ever-changing needs of our community.

JEANNINE KENNEDY

THE JEANNINE BROWN KENNEDY FUND

Jeannine Kennedy is no stranger to philanthropy. Her mother donates regularly to a community foundation in Louisiana. Her son worked for foundations in Florida for 10 years. Jeannine is a former school teacher and UTEP administrative grant manager who has been a community volunteer for years. She and husband Thomas Kennedy are longtime patrons of the arts in El Paso. Hers is a general charitable purpose fund.

"My thing is quality of life. I truly believe that's the key to having a vibrant city, which is why I created this fund. The El Paso Community Foundation understands this concept and is doing such good work supporting quality-of-life programs that make our city a great place to live, work, and explore."

– Jeannine Kennedy

CATHERINE AND JOHN REYNOLDS

THE DR. JOHN AND CATHY REYNOLDS FUND

The Reynoldses created their general charitable purpose fund with two charities in mind, both of which are close to their hearts – the Reynolds Home, which houses women and children fleeing abuse; and Big Brothers Big Sisters of El Paso. John, a prominent dentist, is the grandson of the Reynoldses Home's original owners, and is the cousin of the family members who run it. John and Cathy, a marketing veteran, have two daughters, Rebecca and Sherry. Rebecca is Big Brothers Big Sisters of El Paso's development director.

"We wanted our fund to help kids, the ones who suffer the most. It was a natural."

– Cathy Reynolds

RON AND PATSY STALLWORTH

THE ELROY BODE FUND

The Stallworths met at Austin High School, where noted author Elroy Bode was their English teacher. They reconnected years later after Ron retired from a long career in law enforcement. Ron wrote a memoir about his experience as a black detective who infiltrated a Ku Klux Klan chapter in Colorado, and insisted that "Mr. Bode" edit the manuscript. Black Klansman went on to become a New York Times best-seller and an Academy Award-winning movie directed by Spike Lee. After Mr. Bode's death in 2017 at age 86, the Stallworths vowed to give back by creating a scholarship fund in his name, which will help Austin High seniors pursue their studies of the literary arts in college.

"He was the catalyst in many aspects for Black Klansman because he put in my mind in high school that I could put words together."

— Ron Stallworth

FELIPA SOLIS

THE MICKEY SOLIS SCHOLARSHIP FUND

Former newscaster Felipa Solis established the Mickey Solis Scholarship Fund after her husband's tragic death in 2009. The fund assisted students from Jefferson High School (Mickey's alma mater) and the Silva Magnet Program interested careers in law and pharmacy. After the executive director of El Paso Pro-Musica waged a battle with breast cancer in 2017, she shifted the focus of the fund, which now awards scholarships to Jefferson/Silva students planning to attend the UTEP School of Nursing.

"Nurses are heroes. ...Mickey never forgot where he came from. He cherished everything he created, and everything he earned."

– Felipa Solis

GRANT GUIDELINES

Grant seekers may go to our website at epcf.org to view the El Paso Community Foundation’s guidelines and submit an application. Click on the RECEIVE prompt from the menu.

The El Paso Community Foundation areas of interest are: Arts and Humanities; Civic Affairs/Public Benefit; Environment/Animals; Education; Health and Disabilities; and Human Services. Because the Community Foundation is a collection of many separate funds established by individuals, families, nonprofit organizations and companies, the grants suit a variety of philanthropic interests and giving styles.

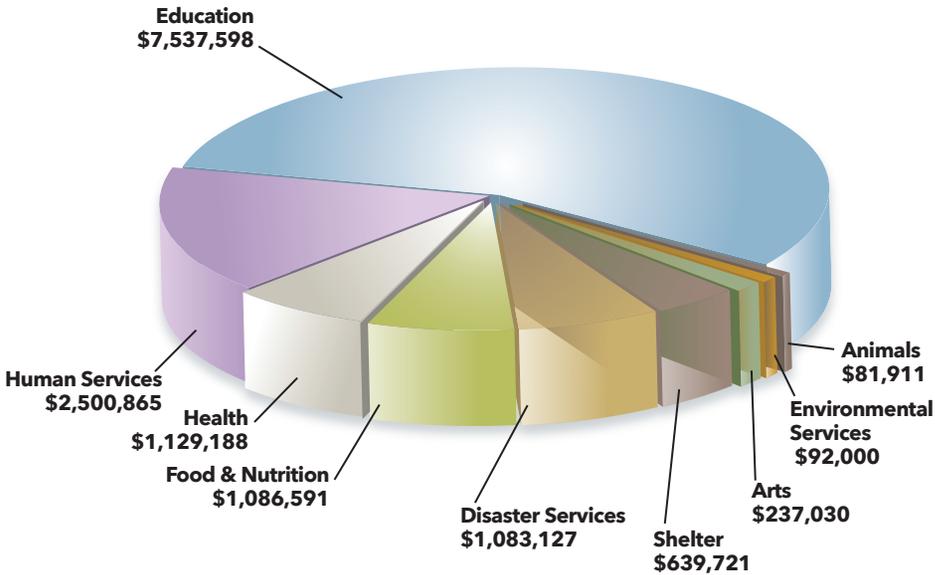

Grants generally will not be made for annual campaigns, dinners or special events, ongoing general support, individuals, capital campaigns for new buildings, or travel.

Grant requests will be considered only from agencies located within or offering services to the citizens of our community, which includes far west Texas, southern New Mexico, and northern Chihuahua, Mexico.

U.S. applicants must be exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code or the equivalent in Mexico.

The Board of the El Paso Community Foundation reviews requests and selects recipient organizations in May and November of each year. Deadlines for receipt of requests are February 1 and August 1.

PERMANENT MEMORIAL FUNDS

SHARING THE LEGACY

Each of these individuals honored by the creation of a memorial fund gave something special to their city. For some, it was leadership and business acumen; for others, a rich tradition of volunteerism, or their youth and promise. They are remembered and missed. In their names, lives are being changed for the better.

ESTELA CASAS

THE STAND WITH ESTELA FUND

When Estela Casas was diagnosed with bilateral breast cancer in 2017, the former KVIA news anchor and others went into action. While Estela bravely fought her successful battle against the cancer in public and on the air, the Stand With Estela Fund, a field of interest fund, was created with seed money from Albertsons, The Hospitals of Providence and KVIA owners News-Press & Gazette. With Estela's input, the fund helps provide grants for a variety of needs confronting women fighting breast cancer, including transportation, wigs and garments.

"While I continue fighting – because the fight never ends – my goal is to show my children the importance of making an impact in their community. Every day is a gift and an opportunity to make a difference."

– Estela Casas

LAURA TATE GOLDMAN

THE LAURA TATE FUND FOR THE ARTS

The popular singer, actress, entertainer, civic leader and philanthropist created the field of interest fund to support the El Paso Community Foundation's various arts-related efforts, which range from the ArtSTREAM classroom initiative (designed to incorporate the arts into everyday curriculum) to the Plaza Classic Film Festival and Viva! El Paso, to name a few. Laura is an active artist who puts her money where her mouth is, having staged benefits for the El Paso Community Foundation and others.

"The arts are so important to this community and they have given so much to me. This is my way of giving back to the community that has given so much to me, especially the El Paso Community Foundation."

– Laura Tate Goldman

AFFILIATED FOUNDATIONS AND SUPPORTING ORGANIZATIONS

When private foundations affiliate with the El Paso Community Foundation, their board members are relieved of highly technical and burdensome reporting to the IRS. Instead, their board experience focuses on funding good works. Affiliated foundations and supporting organizations also enjoy the opportunity to utilize the professional staff of the Community Foundation for management and administrative purposes.
